THE BALTIMORE POISONING CASE

The Criminal Court of Baltimore having adjourned until September next, and the crime of which Mrs Wharton is accused not being bailable, she will be compelled to remain imprisoned at least two months before the case can go to the jury. Her arrest has caused much excitement in the city. There have been so many reports of mysterious sudden deaths and singular attacks of illness occurring in her house, that many of her friends think that she is insane and that she was partially so at times before her marriage—a belief which the story we quote below may strengthen. Mrs Wharton is a native of Philadelphia, and most of her early life was spent in that city. Some of the singular circumstances of her youth are thus sketched by the Inquirer of that city:

Ellen G Nugent was the daughter of George Nugent, a large and very successful importer of this City in the last generation.— She was born forty five years ago by Mr Nugent's second wife, about whom little is known save that she lived up to a few years since, her husband having died before her, during the prevalence of the California gold excitement. The early years of the daughter were spent near Conshohocken, at a place called Gulf Mills. Her father idolized her, and expended large sums of money in gratifying her every whim. Her character was one of great recklessness—a dash and fastness then little known, but which has grown somewhat into fashion in these latter advanced days. She was proud of dress and spent large sums of money in that direction, with the remarkable eccentricity of paying the debts of her favorites and lavishing money and fine dresses, jewelry and what not upon various young ladies of her acquaintance. Her father paid all bills cheerfully, and was only too glad to satisfy the claims of his daughter upon his doting care. She was very beautiful, her society was greatly sought, and she was the centre of fashionable Philadelphia society.

It created an intense excitement when the friends of Miss Nugent heard one morning that she had determined to get married.— Soon afterward the wedding invitations were sent round and the wedding day followed close upon them. The prospective bridegroom was a Mr Williamson, whose claims as a suitor had not even been suspected, and who was, indeed, comparatively unknown to the circle in which Miss Nugent moved. But on the day of the wedding what was the still greater surprise of the guests upon attending the ceremonies to find that the bridegroom had not made his appearance. He was sent for by the parents of the bride, and the startling words brought back that the bridegroom knew nothing of the marriage and had received no intimation of the event whatever. The guests departed in surprise, and the parents and bride were left in discomfiture—perhaps to a wordy quarrel.

The upshot of the matter was that Mr Nugent concluded that his daughter was insane, and determined to put her in a mad-house.— Miss Nugent, however, became acquainted with the design, and a few days before its projected accomplishment, ran away, no one could tell where. A short time afterward intelligence was received that she had married Lieut Harry W Wharton, a young man whose claims, like those of Williamson, had not been known. The couple put up at Jone's Hotel, in this city, but were soon forgiven, and returned to the family mansion at Gulf Mills. Afterwards they resided at Norristown, and still afterward at Philadelphia again. Mrs Wharton was as lavish in her habits as Miss Nugent, and her father was as kind in settling all her little bills. They subsequently moved to Baltimore taking the residence which the family has since occupied, and where the husband died suddenly in 1867. Notwithstanding the growing suspicion that she poisoned her husband and son, it is the universal testimony that never was there a more loving wife. She was most passionately devoted to him, and followed him everywhere.

Deputy Marshal Frey has communicated the following statement to the Baltimore Sun exhibiting the manner in which the case was worked up by the police authorities, and the evidence obtained by them:

Deputy Marshal Frey states that as soon as he learned of the death of Gen Ketchum from Drs Chew and Williams he called upon Mrs Wharton. After talking with her for three-quarters of an hour, he told her he would like to take her servants to his office and examine them privately. She made no objection, and the servants were taken to the office and examined separately by Marshal Grey and himself, and they were satisfied that the servants knew of nothing wrong as to the cause of the death of Gen Ketchum. On Saturday, 8th instant, he asked Mrs Wharton if she had purchased tartar emetic, she replied that she had bought some and used it in a mustard plaster which she placed on her breast. He then went to the store of Gosman & Co, No 191 Madison-ave, where he found that Mrs Wharton had purchased, on the 26th of January about 60 grains of tarter emetic, he found it charged on the books. Up to last Sunday night, 9th instant, he was satisfied that suspicions pointed strongly to Mrs Wharton. The next move of the Deputy Marshal was to ascertain what motive there could have been for the desired death of Gen Ketchum, and in doing this he learned that the deceased came to Baltimore, as believed by his friends, for the purpose of collecting a note of $2,600 from Mrs Wharton, that after his death this note could not be found among the things he brought with him, which had been returned by Mrs Wharton, that a few days after the death of Gen Ketchum Mrs Wharton visited Washington, and called upon Gen Brice the brother in law of deceased, that she asked Gen Brice for $4,000 worth of Government bonds which she said she had deposited for safe keeping with Gen Ketchum. Gen Brice asked her if she had written proof of the fact, or living witnesses that she could furnish she said that she had neither, he then asked her if she was not indebted to Gen Ketchum and whether he did not hold her note for $2,600, she replied in the negative, and said she paid the note some time ago to Gen Ketchum in person, and that she had torn up the note in his presence.

The case of Mr Van Ness is as follows: Mr Van Ness called on Mrs Wharton on the 19th and 20th of June and took a glass of wine each day, after which he was affected with pains in the back and shoulders, but which soon passed off. On the 24th he was at Mrs Wharton's house and took a glass of lager beer from Mrs Wharton's own hand. Shortly after he was taken violently sick with convulsions. The cork of the bottle was drawn out in his presence. He was so sick that he could not be removed from the house. His family were sent for, and also Drs. Williams and Chew, who attended him. He was confined until the 30th, when he was taken home. Mrs Hutton, sister of Mrs Van Ness made some beef tea on Sunday, part of which Van Ness partook of. The remainder was placed in a refrigerator in the cellar. The next time Mr Van Ness partook of it he was unable to retain it upon his stomach. On the 28th, when Gen Ketchum died, Mrs Hutton brought milk to the house. Mr Van Ness drank a tumblerful, and said it was nice, at 11 a. m. she made a milk punch herself, took a wine-glassful and handed it to Mr Van Ness, who said it was very agreeable and pleasant. [illegible] put it in the refrigerator in a [illegible] adjoining the room in which Mr Van Ness was lying. At 12½ p m, Mrs Van Ness went to get her husband another drink of it, pouring it from a tumbler into the wine glass. She tasted it, and found it had a peculiar taste, called Mrs Lorney who observed a sediment in the bottom of the tumbler. She tasted it and found it was bitter. She thought something was wrong, and consulted with Dr Williams.— The sediment was examined by Prof Aiken, and found to contain [illegible] grains of tartar emetic. After that Mr Van Ness took nothing that was not prepared by safe hands.

It is known that Mr Van Ness is one of the victims of the alleged poisoning wholly exonerates Mrs Wharton from all suspicion of guilt in his case, and it is inferred that such was the nature of his testimony before the Grand Jury and also that the vote of that body was not unanimous upon the subject of the presentment. The manner and bearing of Mrs Wharton under the terrible circumstances in which she is placed are said to be perfectly composed. She sheds no tears, utters no reproaches, but quietly asserts her innocence of the crimes alleged. She appears like a woman determined to discipline her feelings and the exercise of perfect self control. Her daughter, however, though assuming a sprightly manner to encourage her mother's spirits, cannot conceal her anguish of mind. Mrs Wharton since her first arrest, has been visited by her brother, Dr Nugent, of Pittsburg, Penn, and a sister, but it is stated that since the death of her husband his family connections have held no intimate relations with her.

STANDING BY THEIR FRIENDS.

If any proof were wanting beyond the ordinary observation of intelligent men, of the existence in our own communities of the same spirit of political pandering to the vicious instincts of the rabble which has led to such serious consequences elsewhere, it has been amply furnished by the sentiments expressed by the Democratic papers of this State in regard to the recent outbreak of ruffianism in New York. The unanimity with which the leading organs of the party assume the championship of the mob, shows that they may be relied upon in any emergency to fall in promptly on the side of the disorderly classes from which they draw the preponderance of their votes, and the fact that the representatives of Democracy in a New England State, where the love of civil and religious liberty is an almost universal inheritance, should be among the first to defend the murderous intolerance of a brutal Irish mob in a city which has been constantly disgraced by their excesses, indicates what may be expected of that party when its aggregation of the worst elements of the population of the whole country is combined to influence the course of our public affairs. The attitude assumed by the Belfast Journal and Bangor Democrat with regard to the riot of the 12th of July, fairly represents the views put forth by the Democratic press in this State, and they present a contrast to the sentiments expressed by the Republican papers of Maine and of the country, which illustrates the lesson for the people afforded in these recent events.

Both of those papers represent the proposed Orange parade as a wanton insult to the people of New York, intended to provoke hostilities, and amply provocative of bloodshed. They attempt to show that the religious sentiments of an orderly people were so shocked by the appearance of this procession that their assaults upon the officers of the law who were guarding it, were almost, if not quite pardonable, and without a word to indicate the fact that the Hibernian mob had threatened for weeks that the parade of the Orangemen should be made a scene of bloodshed, without a word or hint of the unprovoked attack upon, and murder of peaceful men, women and children by the Catholic mob at an Orange picnic one year ago, these high-toned Democratic newspapers devote paragraph after paragraph to unqualified abuse of the Orangemen and to the defence of the tactics which carried out its riotous threats on the 12th of July. Nothing is said of the demands of thugs and murderers upon the Mayor of New York for the suppression, under threat, of a parade which was distasteful to them, nor of the cowardly surrender of the city to the mob. Nothing is said of the tardy proclamation of Governor Hoffman, which might have averted the trouble had it been put forth at the outset, for the miserable creatures of the slums, who from dark alleys and behind chimneys discharged their pistols and muskets into the midst of a peaceful procession, are thus excused by Democrats in Maine.

Were they not "caps and bow to the pitiful handful of the representatives of British monarchy, as they crept by cowering between double lines of military?" * * * * "The adopted citizens of this country, who look with disfavor on those parades, have cast their lot with us for all time—they and their children. The British throne and its oath-bound supporters are abhorred by them, as they should be by all citizens of this country, native or adopted. We have obligations to them which theirs cannot share."

The attempt to obscure the vital issue of popular right, by discussing the relative merits of the Orangemen and Hibernians, and to inflame the prejudices of an already bigoted and unscrupulous faction by abusing their opponents, is unworthy of respectful consideration. The creeds and traditions of the two parties are nothing to us, they stand equal before our laws, and are entitled to a protection in the exercise of their rights which is entirely distinct from any endorsement or approval of their tenets. Orangeman and Catholic must bow to the law of the land, and the law must grant to each the protection which it extends to all. The people of this country care not a fig for the controversy between the two, but when one faction threatens to disturb the public peace, and does commit riot and bloodshed because the public authorities refuse to persecute its opponents, the people demand that the mob shall be mowed down in swaths, if necessary, to vindicate the supremacy of law and order.

The papers referred to are not satisfied with defending the rioters, but assail the Orange institution with a violence worthy of sectarian prejudice. The Orangemen are denounced as "aliens," "the oath-bound supporters of the British throne," and by other opprobrious epithets, when the writers know that the institution in this country is an independent organization, and that there is no earthly reason why a Protestant Irishman should not be as loyal to his adopted country as an Irish Catholic. The perpetuation of the memory of a Protestant English King with that of Washington and Lincoln, should certainly not be held to unfit a class of men for the duties of American citizenship, more seriously than adherence to a religious creed which claims supreme allegiance for a Roman Pontiff, and our people will not believe that in this country the fact that a man is a Protestant should be sufficient to place him at the mercy of a mob. Why do not these journals state that the Orange procession in New York was peaceful and unprovoking; that its banners were simply those of its Order, and that the only motto which the rabble could justly construe as an insult, was: "American Freemen, Fall in!" They marched quietly, and made no resistance to the shower of missiles and bullets that were hurled at them by the mob, and this peaceful parade of some two hundred Protestant Irish Americans was what the Belfast Journal characterizes as "the offering to citizens of conspicuous and needless public insult by avowed alien enemies?" There could be no more abject exhibition of the servility of the Democratic press of this State, than its readiness to make Protestantism a word of reproach to flatter its political allies.

The mob of New York can claim the shield of no religion; all respectable Catholics denounced [illegible] ... [illegible] a conflict in defiance of both religion and law, and it is left for the Democratic papers of Maine, to [illegible] ... [illegible] from the [illegible] ... all teachings [illegible] ... thirty [illegible] the people of this a duty [illegible]

... will take no sides in controversies which do not concern them, but will insist that no faction, religious or otherwise, shall dictate the denial of popular rights, and that any attempts of the rabble to overthrow the peace of society shall be stamped out beneath the iron heel of the law. While the constituted authorities will deal thus summarily with all uprisings of the mob, the people must themselves take care to counteract the teachings of those who earn the political support of the abandoned classes by a ready defence of their violence and crime.

Governor B. Gratz of Missouri has been interviewed by a correspondent. He appears to have taken kindly to the infliction and to have unburdened himself of a good deal of bile. He speaks disparagingly of President Grant, and so ungenerously withal as to suggest a personal rather than a political ground of hostility. He asserts that the President has snubbed and insulted the really smart men of the country (meaning, probably, himself,) and set them aside to make way for West Pointers. He thinks Grant will fail of a renomination; but in any event he (Brown) will not vote for him. He has faith in the new departure Democracy, and believes if they nominate the right man (himself probably,) in spite of all opposition. Hancock stands no chance, because he is a military man, and the country has had enough of military men to last it a century. He does not think Horace Greeley will have any show in the Republican Convention as a Presidential candidate. He winds up by going over to the new departure Democracy without reservation, remarking that it "embodies everything necessary for the proper administration of affairs." The Ku-Klux bill he regards as the weak point in the Republican armor, and asserts that Radical emissaries in the Southern States are in a great measure responsible for the Ku-Klux outrages whenever they have been committed. So much for Gratz Brown. Disappointed ambition sometimes plays "fantastic tricks" with aspiring men.

HENRY WARD BEECHER ON THE RIOT. In this week's edition of the Christian Union, Rev. Henry Ward Beecher utters these manly words: "The Orange Societies should parade next year without a banner less and with no inscription rubbed out. They should not do it as an implied promise that if protected for once they will then do it no more. They ought to move through the streets of New York until nobody thinks of molesting them. When that time arrives it will be a matter of no public importance whether the annual procession is kept up or not. But so long as a dog wags his tongue against an Orangeman's procession, or a bewildered magistrate forgets his duty toward them, the public good requires their continuance. If the Orangemen of New York fail next year to march through the streets of the city, they will betray a sacred duty. By accident they have become the representatives of principle which lies at the foundation of modern civilization. They do not just now represent a spent fact in history, but a living principle. It is not the Battle of the Boyne in Ireland, but a question of liberty in New York."

A PECULIAR NEWSPAPER.—The Piscataquis Observer in its issue of last week publishes a leading article under its editorial head, roundly abusing the Bangor and Piscataquis Railroad, and evincing a degree of spite at the proper extension of the road in accordance with its original design, which rendered the mis-statements unworthy of notice. And now we find in this week's issue a little item in small type tucked in a corner of the paper, which reads as follows:

The article published in our last number on the B. & P. Railroad was from the pen of a correspondent. This paper does not hold itself responsible for the views expressed in the article.

As we supposed he would, Mr. Washburne, American Minister, authorizes a contradiction of the statement that he has assured the French Government that the Communists will be disallowed a residence in the United States. Mr. Washburne declares that in recent communications with Jules Favre no such intimation was given.

The density of English ignorance of American institutions is illustrated in a late number of the Pall Mall Gazette. Police Justice Dowling, of New York, lately attacked and drove off four burglars in the house of his London host, with an umbrella stand, and the Gazette speaks of him as "chief magistrate of New York." If an American paper should speak of the Duke of Gladstone, or Earl Bright, it would be laughed to scorn.

The New York Times announces that the Tammany Ring has made strenuous efforts to obtain the interest in its stock held by the Raymond estate, in order to prevent its damaging warfare upon Tweed, Sweeny, Connolly & Co. In its issue of Wednesday it explicitly brands Mayor Hall and Comptroller Connolly of that city as thieves and swindlers, and promises to prove the charge by the books of the latter. The Tammany management is getting an effective ventilation.

MORE RIOTING IN NEW YORK STATE.—Serious riots have occurred at Nanuet, N. Y., among the Irish and German laborers of the Erie Railway, Hackensack extension. The Irish picked a quarrel in a lager beer saloon, from which they drove the proprietor and his family. Subsequently two Irish laborers were terribly beaten by the Germans—one named Ryan, perhaps fatally. The Irish again attacked the lager beer saloon with clubs and stones and were replied to by the Germans with repeated volleys from shot-guns, and the Irish beat a retreat. Patrick McMahon was shot in several places, but his wounds are not necessarily fatal; Isaac Cutler was shot in twenty-six places and his recovery is doubtful; Martin Goheagan was shot two or three times and severely clubbed. It is not known how many others were injured.

THE MORDAUNT DIVORCE CASE. The great Mordaunt case, which during its trial in London created such an immense popular excitement, is likely to be brought before the courts again. Lady Mordaunt, who was committed to a private lunatic asylum for life, being considered insane, has been released, her physicians declaring that in their opinion her insanity was purely feigned, and that she is wholly sane, and therefore responsible for her actions. Sir Charles Mordaunt has announced his determination of recommencing proceedings with a view to obtaining an absolute divorce from Lady Mordaunt. His suit will be brought before the Scottish or English courts. This new phase of the case has awakened much popular interest. It is not improbable that an entire rehearing of the evidence on both sides will take place, and that certain individuals of high rank will again be brought prominently before the public.

A TREMENDOUS BLAST. On Thursday afternoon a blast too heavily charged with powder was set off in a quarry of Humphrey Bramhall, in Bergen City, N. J., and the explosion was terrific, stones being hurled into the air from every direction. Several pieces of rock weighing [illegible] pounds were blown through the sides of Mr. Bramhall's residence, some of these pieces passing entirely through the building, making it almost a wreck. There were several persons in the house at the time, who narrowly escaped [illegible] ... [illegible] night.

SUICIDE OF AN INSANE MURDERER.—Robert Buffum, who murdered Mr. Seagrave at Newburgh, New Hampshire, [illegible] committed suicide on Thursday in his cell at the State Asylum for Criminals in [illegible] city, by cutting his throat with a razor. He made a barricade with his bedstead to prevent the keeper from thwarting his design. Dr. Wilkie, the Superintendent, tried to narcotize him, but the attempt failed and Buffum accomplished his purpose while the cell was being forced.

Rare Chance.

A Valuable House for Sale.

The owner, having removed from the city wishes to sell this house, situated on West Broadway. It is a large new, two-story house with a French roof, and is furnished throughout in the best manner and with all the modern improvements. It is situated on one of the pleasantest streets in the city, and all of the surroundings are as good as could be found anywhere. The lot contains about seven eighths of an acre (162 feet on the street, and about 350 feet back) and is all under a high state of cultivation. Also soil is very nice and light. There are nearly all kinds of fruit trees and shrubbery on the lot, and a nice flower garden beside the house. It is seldom that such a chance is offered to persons wishing to buy a nice house.

It must be sold immediately. For particulars inquire at No. 4, Broad Street, Bangor.

CELEBRATED HOME STOMACH BITTERS

ARE ENDORSED AND PRESCRIBED BY MORE leading Physicians than any other Tonic or Stimulant now in use. They are

A SURE PREVENTIVE

For Fever and Ague, Intermittents, Biliousness, and all disorders arising from malarious causes. They are highly recommended as an ANTI-DYSPEPTIC, and in cases of INDIGESTION are INVALUABLE. As an APPETIZER and RECUPERANT, and in cases of GENERAL DEBILITY they have never, in a single instance, failed to produce the most happy results. They are particularly

BENEFICIAL TO FEMALES,

Strengthening the body, invigorating the mind, and giving tone and elasticity to the whole system. The HOME BITTERS are compounded with the greatest care and no tonic or stimulant has ever been offered to the public so PLEASANT TO THE TASTE and at the same time combining so many remedial agents endorsed by the medical fraternity as the best known to the Pharmacopoeia. It costs but little to give them a fair trial, and Every Family Should Have a Bottle.

No preparation in the world can produce so many unqualified endorsements by physicians of the very highest standing in their profession.

Endorsed also by the Clergy and the leading denominational papers.

UNITED STATES MARINE HOSPITAL, ST. LOUIS, MO., Oct. 6, 1870.

JAMES A. JACKSON & CO.—I have examined the formula for making the "Home Stomach Bitters," and used them in this hospital the last four months. I consider them the most valuable tonic and stimulant now in use.

S. H. MELCHER,
Resident Physician in charge U. S. Marine Hospital.

JAMES A. JACKSON & CO.—Gentlemen: As you have communicated to the medical profession the recipe of the "Home Bitters," it cannot, therefore, be considered as a patent medicine, no patent having been taken for it. We have examined the formula for making the "Home Bitters," and unhesitatingly say the combination is one of rare excellence, all the articles used in its composition are the best of the class to which they belong, being highly tonic, stimulant, Stomachic, Carminative and slightly Laxative. The mode of preparing them is strictly in accordance with the rules of pharmacy. Having used them, seen its effects in our private practice, we take pleasure in recommending them to all persons desirous of taking Bitters, as being the best Tonic and Stimulant now offered to the public.

Bangor and Castine Telegraph Company.

The Stockholders of this Company are hereby notified that the annual meeting will be held at the "Robinson House," Bucksport, at 3 o'clock P. M. on THURSDAY, the 27th inst., to choose officers for the ensuing year, and act upon any business that may properly come before the meeting.

A Safe & Profitable INVESTMENT.

First Mortgage Bonds,

To a limited amount, upon a railroad which is well located for business, and which has been already largely constructed with the funds of its Stockholders, cannot be otherwise than safe. This security is increased if the Constructing Company is composed of men of high character, and of ample means for successfully carrying through any work they undertake.

THE

MEMPHIS, EL PASO & PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY.

Offer for sale a bond which combines those advantages in an unusual degree. The route lies between Mobile, Alabama, and Houston, Texas, passing through New Orleans, the New York of the South. Of the whole line of 475 miles, about two-thirds are already built, and the Stockholders have expended nearly TEN MILLION DOLLARS in this work. The bonds now offered are secured by a mortgage upon all that part of the line west of New Orleans, which has an enormous traffic assured to it from the start, this being the only rail connection by which the cotton, corn, cattle and other productions of Texas can reach New Orleans.

So important is this road considered to Louisiana, that the State has made very liberal grants in aid of the enterprise, by direct donations, by endorsement of second mortgage bonds, and by subscriptions to the stock of the Company, amounting in all to over eight million dollars.

The First Mortgage

Eight Per cent. Bonds

Now offered, are limited in amount to $12,500 per mile and are for $1,000 or £200 each, interest payable January and July, at the rate of 8 per cent. Currency or 7 per cent. Gold, at the option of the holder. Bonds registered if desired.

Among the leading Stockholders of the Company are Hon. E. D. Morgan, Ex-Governor and Ex U. S. Senator; Hon. John A. Griswold, Ex-Lieutenant-Governor, Troy, N. Y.; Hon. Oakes Ames, M. C., Massachusetts; Messrs. Morton, Bliss & Co., E. Von Hoffman & Co., J. & W. Seligman & Co., Harrison Durkee, and others of New York; Benjamin E. Bates, President Bank of Commerce, Franklin Haven, President Merchants' Bank, Boston, and others, also well known.

The above statement of facts proves the SAFETY of these Bonds. Their PROFIT is equally manifest upon examination. They are sold for the present at 90, and accrued interest from July 1st. At this price they afford a certain income for forty-five years, of nearly nine per cent. upon their cost. One thousand dollars invested in these eight per cent. bonds will give the purchaser more than seventy-seven per cent. greater annual interest than the same amount invested in the new Government five Per Cents, while holders of Government Sixes will find a doubled profit in selling them at present high prices, and re-investing in the New Orleans, Mobile and Texas Bonds.

Subscriptions will be received in Bangor by

P. M. BLAKE, Banker, and in Bucksport by

EDWARD SWAZEY

GREAT BRITAIN

EXCITEMENT PRODUCED BY THE ACTION OF THE MINISTRY

London, 21. All the papers of to-day contain editorials on the subject of the cancellation by Royal Warrant of the act legalizing the purchase of Army commissions. The Times, Post and Star fully believe the course of the Ministry unconstitutional, while the News and Telegraph approve to the fullest extent the step taken by the Ministry.

WHAT THE TIMES SAYS.

The Times says the act of the Ministers abolishing the system of the purchase of Army Commissions by Royal warrant, is a violent wrench of the constitution, and a too forcible assertion of the will of the House of Lords. The Times regrets that this grave step has been taken, but expresses the hope that the House of Lords in their future action will think of the effects upon the officers of the Army, rather than obstinacy to their own privilege.

OTHER LONDON JOURNALS.

The Daily News approves of the conduct of the government in making themselves the exponents of the popular will, and recommends that the Lords pass the bill abolishing the purchase of Army Commissions. The Telegraph is exultant over the action of the Ministry, and says that Mr Gladstone will be more popular for vindicating the dignity of the House of Commons in securing the harvest of its laborious session, and for reorganizing the defences of the country, and guarding the interests of the Army. The Post says that the course of the government has been somewhat unconstitutional, bringing it believes Parliament into contempt before the people. The Standard asserts that Mr. Gladstone has grossly violated the privileges of Parliament, wasting its time and precipitating a constitutional crisis.

THE EMPEROR NAPOLEON

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, July 21.

The Ku-Klux Committee to-day, examined Mr. McBride, who testified that while a teacher of a colored-school in Chickasaw county in Mississippi, a band of disguised men seized and whipped him and insisted that he should leave the county. Other colored schools were broken up in that section. A telegram was read to the committee from a citizen of Macon Georgia, that he telegraphed on the 11th of July, that he was ready to report, but received the next day a telegram from the Sergeant at Arms of the Senate, telling him that he need not come, as the Committee had no time for more witnesses. The Sergeant-at-Arms being out of town, he could not explain but at the instance of the Democratic members this Georgian and six or eight others were resummoned by telegraph to appear before the Committee.

During the year ending June 30th, 1871, 107,114 passengers arrived at the port of New York from foreign countries, of which number 100,015 were actual emigrants; there were 60,062 males, and 40,733 females.

KU KLUX AFFAIRS.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 21.

Nine men were brought before the United States Commissioner Beatty to-day, on a charge of being connected with the recent Ku Klux outrages in Estelle County, in which one man of the Ku Klux party was killed and several wounded. Barner Vaughan, one of the negroes Ku-Kluxed, recognized one of the prisoners. Thomas Payne, of the Ku-Klux party, turned State's evidence. He pointed out six of the prisoners as present at Vaughan's. He said he had joined the band to escape injury and to get revenge for the injuries they had done him. He told of several bands in Estelle Co. which were organized on account of jealousy arising from an Ohio company coming into the county and employing a large number of negroes. Payne's evidence if true, is most important, as it is the first instance of a so called Ku-Klux exposing his organization and companions.

It is stated that Mr. Cockerill, a member of the Kentucky State Senate, is at the bottom of the organization. He was frequently referred to by members as their leader, and it seemed to be generally understood among them that he was the prominent mover in their affairs. The prisoners were held in $1000 each to answer at the October term of the Federal Court.

CONTRADICTION.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., July 21.

Before and since my arrival in Memphis this day, my attention has been called to slanderous articles in certain radical newspapers, which attack my private character in connection with that of a lady, who it is falsely stated was travelling under my charge. It is deemed due to myself, as well as to my personal friends, to state unequivocally and without delay, that the story in the whole and all its essential parts, is unmistakeably an instigation of malice, and is hereby pronounced utterly false.

BRADLEY.—Union Hall. Miss Nellie L. Davis speaks, 1 o'clock, A. M., and 2 o'clock P. M.

—The city is healthy.

—Nice breezy day, yesterday.

—Street beggars have nearly deserted the city.

—The cool nights are universally appreciated.

—Minor repairs are making in the school houses.

—When will we have some more public drinking fountains?

—Ross' drive contains 60 million feet, and is managed by 170 men, we are informed.

—J. S. Sayward, Esq., formerly editor of this paper is spending a few days in Augusta.

—Jane McGinnis was sent to the House of Correction yesterday, on an Overseer's warrant.

—Preparations are making to repair and paint the spire of the Union St. Methodist church.

—Messrs. C. E. Dole and Gideon Mayo have resigned their positions as Directors of the Winterport Railroad.

—The Piscataquis Trotting Association will hold a two days' trot, on Tuesday and Wednesday, August 8th and 9th.

—We learn that Rev. J. G. Leavitt of Patten, has accepted the call to become pastor of the Congregational church at Orono.

—Yesterday was a very quiet day in this city, no drunkenness was seen on the streets in the evening, and at midnight there was no "case" in the lock-up.

—Capt. J. W. Crocker, of Rockland, recently appointed Deputy Collector of Customs at that port, in place of Gen. J. P. Cilley, has entered upon the duties of his office.

BAND CONCERT. The usual out-door concert was omitted last evening, as the band did not arrive home from the excursion in season. This evening, however, they will play in West Market Square.

—The residents of North Bangor and vicinity are very glad to hear that the report that the old Levant road was to be discontinued, is incorrect. It is to be put in traveling condition this summer.

—The largest excursion of the season was that of the Universalist Sunday School and their friends, on the steamer Sanford and barge Fairy, to Fort Point, yesterday. The trip was very pleasant and much enjoyed.

BANGOR DIRECTORY. As the city has now been thoroughly canvassed, this work will be issued as soon as possible. Any parties wishing to make any change in their address, occupation or anything of the kind, or, who think their names have not been taken, can notify D. Bugbee & Co., Publishers.

—The annual camp-meeting at Wesleyan Grove, Northport, will commence August 21st, a week earlier than usual. The Camp Ground is to be fenced, all round and a new landing made just below it, so persons will not have to pass through the centre of the grounds when they come in steamers or vessels.

—Mr. C. F. Smith sends us a package of the "genuine, simon-pure, ten-liner potato bugs," raised and harvested in St. Anthony, Minn., by our former townsman, Mr. D. Russel. The package was sealed up air-tight and mailed on the 17th, but the bugs were alive and kicking when we opened the package yesterday. They are "in good spirits" now.

THE REV. MRS. HANNAFORD. This lady, who will occupy the pulpit of the Universalist Church in this city, to-morrow, entered the ministry and was installed over the First Universalist Church of Hingham, Mass., in 1867, the first lady ever ordained within that State. After brief labors in connection with the churches at Hingham and Waltham, she accepted in April, 1870, a unanimous call to New Haven, where she still remains settled. As an authoress and lecturer, she has gained as wide celebrity as she has in the pulpit, and her first sermon in this city will doubtless be listened to by an immense congregation.

E. & N. A. RAILWAY. The extent of the local business on the European & North American Railway, between this city and Mattawamkeag, 58 miles, is surprising. Thirteen locomotives, two hundred and six freight cars, four baggage, and thirteen passenger cars are in constant use on this limited portion of the road, and so rapid is the increase in way of business that the addition of 25 cars per month built at the E. & N. A. R. shops in Oldtown, is insufficient to keep pace with it, while locomotives, freight and passenger cars are continually being built elsewhere to supply the needs of the way business. Preparations are also being made for the large through business which will ensue at once on completion of the road in September. Some very elegant passenger coaches are being constructed, and before long the luxurious Pullman cars will be run through to Halifax.

The E. & N. A. R. has not yet been in operation two years to Mattawamkeag, yet in its first year its business was greater than that of the seventh year of the Portland, Saco & Portsmouth Railroad, the latter . . . connection . . . Old Colony . . . . Clara W Elwell, . . . Philadelphia.

SPOKEN.

July 17, lat 40 38, lon 68 38, barque Gazelle, from Glace Bay for New York.

July 9, no lat, &c, barque Lizzie Morrow, Adams, from Philadelphia for Belfast.

. . . judge, say that the E. & N. A. Railway, will be, beyond question, the best paying road in . . . State . . . great sources, makes this obvious. Its completion will be hailed with joy by hundreds of thousands of people whom it directly benefits.

BANGOR POLICE COURT.

BEFORE JUDGE CLARK.

Friday, July 21st. State vs. Cornelius Murphy. Drunkenness and disturbance. Fined $5 and costs.

State vs. Henry Belcher. Same offence and fine.

State vs. Elisha Odlin. Same offence; fined $3 and costs.

State vs. John Kelley ("Ireland John"); same offense and fine.

THE STORM ON THE NORTH ATLANTIC COAST. Advices state that Sir William Logan and party, who left St. Johns, N. F., on a geological surveying expedition on the 12th inst., were entirely cut off on their route by a severe storm on the 14th inst., which swept away bridges and flooded the principal parts of the only road they had to travel upon. It is probable that the horses and baggage attached to the expedition have been either lost or badly injured. The party are believed to be safe, inasmuch as they were provided with portable boats and one canoe. The storm did considerable damage in and around the towns of Topsail and Holly Rood, N. F. It is said to be a continuation of the hurricane which blew over the coast of Labrador some weeks ago, destroying 325 fishing vessels, 23 dwelling houses, over 40 stores about £30,000 worth of dried fish, fishing flakes and other property. The number of lives already ascertained as lost is 93, while many more are expected to be added to the dismal record.

The Portland Advertiser says that as Sir William Logan has been in that city, this week, the conclusion that he and his party are safe is a sound one.

THE BOSTON REGATTA. The Boston City Regatta, postponed from the 4th of July on account of fog, took place Thursday. In the first race five boats entered and "Starlight" won the first prize in 4 h. 35 m. 41 sec. For keel-boats the "Coming" won the first prize in 3h. 57 m. 40 sec. In the race for second-class boats there were 22 entries. The first prize was won by sloop "Mist" in 3 hr. 0m. 44 sec. For keel boats and for centre-boards the sloop "White Cap" won in 2 h. 29 m. 15 sec. For the third race there were 40 entries. The sloop "Ripple" was first to return in 2 h. 24 m. 20 sec., but the prizes were not awarded.

POLITICAL AND PERSONAL.

The German Republicans of Iowa have published an address opposing the re-election of Senator Harlan.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Post says that Secretary Boutwell never enjoyed the confidence of the President more than at present.

It is stated that Disraeli, if not, as he expects, reinstated Premier of England, next Winter, will make a tour of the world, beginning with this country.

Col. Frank M. Hight of Chattanooga denies that Jeff Davis ever assured him, as has been reported, that within five years he expected to be President of the Southern Confederacy.

The editor of an Ohio democratic journal is much grieved because in a spelling match in school his daughter, as he expresses it, was "spelled down by a nigger" of about the same age. He thinks this is a new reason for desiring to defeat the Republicans.

In the Connecticut House of Representatives, the liquor law, known as the "Truman Smith bill," making liquor sellers responsible for damages caused by their customers while intoxicated, and containing other stringent provisions, was continued to the next General Assembly.

A telegram from Washington says that Governor Bullock of Georgia, in a long letter in answer to a circular from Senator Scott of the Sub-Ku-Klux Committee, completely repudiates the Republican construction of the Constitutional amendments, and plants himself squarely upon the Jeffersonian platform of State rights.

The Opelika Ala. Locomotive refuses to hitch on to the New Departure, and proclaims its platform as follows: First: A cordial, abiding, and eternal distrust of the General Government. Second: An ineradicable, inexpugnable conviction that these States are, and of right ought to be, free, sovereign, and independent.

Mr. Charles Nordhoff has resigned his position as managing editor of the New York Evening Post, after ten years of constant and efficient service. Mr. Nordhoff is succeeded by Mr. Carleton T. Lewis, who has been one of the principal writers for the Evening Post for several years. Mr. Lewis is a gentleman of high scholarly attainments, and is one of the ablest writers on the New York press.

Attorney-General Leavitt of Mississippi, a native of the South, testifying before the Congress Committee on Ku-Klux, expressed his opinion that the existence of the Ku-Klux would be as apparent in the next election as in 1868 and 1869. It has already been shown how Forty Thousand Republican voters abandoned the polls at the last Presidential election. And now we have due warning that the programme of 1868 is to be repeated in 1872.

BUSINESS ITEMS.

THE PARKS HOUSE, 187 Washington St., Boston, conducted on the European plan, is one of the most conveniently situated hotels in the city. Parties remaining in the city over night will find good accommodations at the Parks House, at reasonable prices.

ABSOLUTE SAFETY of the principal is the paramount consideration with parties seeking methods of investment.

Careful parties throughout New England are investing their money in European & N. A. R. Bonds, and realizing a handsome difference in Cash by exchanging State and U. S. Bonds for them,—in preference to other forms of investment—on account of the very ample security and unquestionable safety of these Bonds. At their present price, they pay 7½ per cent. interest in currency, which is as high a rate as can be obtained, incessantly for a series of years, without more or less endangering the principal. The coupons will be paid in Gold at the Treasurer's office in Bangor, when due (March 1st and Sept. 1st)—thus making it more convenient for holders hereabouts than sending to New York or Boston. Savings Banks have taken large amounts, and it will be difficult to obtain any after once closed out,—unless at a material advance over present price. The sales are very large. Advertisement will give further particulars.

Midsummer Maladies.

The hot solar rays that ripen the harvests generate many distressing diseases. If the liver be at all predisposed, to irregularities, this is the season in which billious attacks may be anticipated. A weak stomach, too, is weakest in the summer months, and the loss of vitality through the pores by excessive perspiration is so great, that a wholesome tonic, combining also the properties of a diffusive stimulant and gentle exhilarant, is in many cases necessary to health, and under no circumstances should be dispensed with by the sickly and debilitated. Of all the preparations intended thus to refresh, sustain, and fortify the human frame, there is none that will compare with Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters. They have been weighed in the balance of experience and not found wanting; have been recommended from the first as a great medicinal specific, not as a beverage, and in spite of interested opposition from innumerable quarters, stand, after a twenty years trial, at the head of all proprietary medicines intended for the prevention and cure of all ordinary complaints of the stomach, the liver, the bowels, and the nerves. In the unhealthy districts bordering the great rivers of the South and West, Hostetter's Bitters may be classed as the standard one for every species of intermittent or remittent fever. The people who inhabit those districts, place the most implicit confidence in the preparation—a confidence that is increased every year by the results of its operation.

As bitters, so called, of the most pernicious character, are springing up like fungi on every side, the public is hereby forewarned against the dram shop frauds. Ask for Hostetter's Bitters, see that the label, etc., are correct, and remember that the genuine article is never sold in bulk, but in bottles only.

TO ALL PERSONS,

BOTH SICK AND WELL.

If a Long Life of Health and Happiness is desired, let these Bitters be taken, particularly in the Spring and Warm Seasons of the year, and especially by the following classes of people:—The MECHANIC, who, from his constant indoor labors not having sufficient access to the bracing and refreshing air out of doors, becomes weakened at the stomach, nervous, pale and sickly, his food not relishing nor properly digesting. He should take these Bitters, and freely too, in order to get his system up, right and strong, and in prime condition to go through the warm weather in good shape, with his constant daily labors. The exhilarating and cleansing power of the Dock Root, Dandelion, Poplar, and Prickly Ash Bark, is what will bring him up, and make him, physically speaking, once more a man! RAILWAY CO.

THE E. & N. A. RAILWAY is completed from Bangor Maine, to St. John, New Brunswick, a distance of 202 miles,—with the exception of 58 miles between Winn, Me., and the boundary line of the State at Vanceboro'. On this portion the track is now being laid, both from Winn eastward, and from Vanceboro' westward; and the work will be completed and trains running from Bangor to St. John in September next.

This road will then be

THE ONLY RAILWAY

CONNECTING THE UNITED STATES AND THE BRITISH PROVINCES (New Brunswick and Nova Scotia). The population of the maritime Provinces is about ONE MILLION, and all the land travel, freight, mails, &c., between them and the United States, will pass over this Trunk line, which is WITHOUT COMPETITION. Although not yet completed, the business of the road is already far greater than its most sanguine friends predicted, and is continually increasing.

The net earnings from Local Business done, on the 56 miles completed in Maine, already exceed the interest on two and one quarter millions of dollars, and will be largely increased after Sept. next by the business to and from the Provinces.

To complete this road, and to equip it as fully as its present large business and the immediate increase consequent upon its completion, requires,—the Company has issued its Bonds to the amount of Two Millions of Dollars, secured by a

FIRST & ONLY MORTGAGE

ON ITS ENTIRE ROAD AND PROPERTY FROM WINN TO VANCEBORO' (besides a Second Mortgage on the entire road and equipments from Bangor to Winn, 56 miles. This portion cost some $2,300,000, and the only lien thereon is a mortgage to the city of Bangor for $1,000,000)—and, in addition thereto, by a FIRST AND ONLY MORTGAGE on 800,000 Acres of Land!

Said lands being the same granted by the State of Maine to aid the construction of the road. They are situated along the Penobscot and St. John rivers, and are heavily timbered and valuable. Large tracts, especially in the fertile Aroostook Valley, (the finest agricultural district in the State,) are valuable for farming lands as well as for their timber. This immense grant of lands equals about of Railroad with which they are mortgaged. They cover 1250 square miles (nearly as large as the State of Rhode Island, which is 1300 square miles,) and are of great value.

14,000 Acres to each Mile

Thus, besides the mortgage of the Railway, its equipments, &c., which alone is ample security for the Bonds, there are timber and farm lands to the amount of pledged to ensure the payment thereof.

The Bonds are for $1000 each, due March 1, 1890, bear interest at

Six Per Cent. Per Annum,

PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST PAYABLE IN GOLD COIN.

Free from U. S. Taxation.

Coupons payable March 1 and September 1, in New York. Bonds registered if desired. Coupons made payable (£6 each) in London, England, if preferred.

SINKING FUND—All proceeds of sales of land, as well as of timber and other products therefrom, are, by the Trustees, to be invested in these Bonds if they can be bought at par or less, otherwise in United States, State or Municipal Securities. And on July 1, 1879, and annually thereafter until these Bonds become due or are all paid, the E. & N. A. Railway Co. is bound to pay to the Trustees a sum of money equal to one per cent. of the amount of Bonds outstanding. Such amounts, and all interest received on securities, belonging to the SINKING FUND are to be invested as above stated, and these accumulations are solely for the purpose of additional providing for the redemption of these Bonds. The Sinking Fund constitutes a third great element of security and strength, and adds to the value of these Bonds.

The Trustees are Hon. HANNIBAL HAMLIN, of Bangor, Me., and J. EDGAR THOMSON, Esq., of Philadelphia, Pa.

The Trustees are authorized to receive the Bonds at Par and Accrued Interest in payment for any of the lands at their appraised value.

These very desirable securities for sale at 90 AND ACCRUED INTEREST IN CURRENCY.

U. S. Bonds and all marketable securities received at highest market price in exchange for these Bonds, and can be sent by Express and these returned by Express, free of expense to the purchaser.

Pamphlets giving further particulars concerning the connections and business, with Maps, showing the location and lands of this road, sent free on application to

On completion (in 1872) of 60 miles of Railroad now building, between St. John, N. B. and Halifax, N. S. there will be an unbroken line of Railway from Halifax to all the chief cities of the United States, and as two or three days of ocean travel can be avoided, and about 36 hours' time saved, from New York, in going to or coming from Europe, by rail to or from Halifax, a large business in passengers, mails and freight will thereby be added to the traffic over the E. & N. A. Railway.

RESOLUTION OF GENERAL NATURE.—No. 49.

Joint Resolution to enable Owners to obtain Duplicates of lost and destroyed registered Bonds of the United States.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and hereby is, authorized and directed, whenever it is proved by clear and satisfactory evidence that any duly registered bond of the United States, bearing interest, issued for valuable consideration in pursuance of law, has been lost or destroyed, so that the same is not held by any person as his own property, to issue a duplicate of said registered bond, to be so marked, of like amount, and bearing like interest as the bond so proved to be lost or destroyed: Provided, That the owner of such missing bond shall file in the treasury a bond in a penal sum equal to the amount of said missing bond, and the interest which would accrue thereon, until the principal thereof is due and payable, with two good and sufficient sureties, residents of the United States, to the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, with condition to indemnify and save harmless the United States from any claim because of the said lost or destroyed bond.

Approved, March 3, 1871.

By the President of the United States of America.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas an additional article to the treaty of navigation and commerce between the United States of America and His Majesty the Emperor of Russia, of the 18th of December, 1832, was concluded and signed at Washington, by their respective plenipotentiaries, on the 27th day of January, 1868, the original of which additional article is word for word as follows:

The United States of America and His Majesty the Emperor of all the Russias, deeming it advisable that the ... of ... in addition to the treaty of commerce between them of the 6–18 December, 1832, have for that purpose named as their plenipotentiaries, the President of the United States, William H. Seward, Secretary of State, and His Majesty the Emperor of all the Russias, the Privy Counsellor, Edward de Stoeckl, ... Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to the United States, and the said plenipotentiaries, after an examination of their respective full powers, which were found to be in good and due form, have agreed to and signed the following:

ADDITIONAL ARTICLE.

The high contracting parties, desiring to secure complete and efficient protection to the manufacturing industry of their respective citizens and subjects, agree that any counterfeiting in one of the two countries of the trade marks affixed in the other on merchandise to show its origin and quality, shall be strictly prohibited and repressed, and shall give ground for an action of damages in favor of the injured party, to be prosecuted in the courts of the country in which the counterfeit shall be proven.

The trade marks in which the citizens or subjects of one of the two countries may wish to secure the right of property in the other, must be lodged exclusively, to wit, the marks of citizens of the United States in the department of manufactures and inland commerce at St. Petersburg, and the marks of Russian subjects at the patent office in Washington.

This additional article shall be terminable by either party, pursuant to the 12th article of the treaty to which it is an addition. It shall be ratified by the President by and with the advice and consent of the Senate of the United States, and by his Majesty the Emperor of all the Russias, and the respective ratifications of the same shall be exchanged at St. Petersburg within nine months from the date hereof, or sooner if possible.

In faith whereof the respective plenipotentiaries have signed the present additional article in duplicate and affixed thereto the seal of their arms.

Additional Articles to the Treaty between the United States and China, of June 18, 1858.

By the President of the United States of America.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas certain additional articles to the treaty now in force between the United States of America and the Ta Tsing Empire signed at Tientsin the 18th day of June 1858, were concluded and signed by their plenipotentiaries at Washington, on the 28th day of July, 1868, which additional articles are, word for word, as follows:

Additional Articles to the Treaty between the United States of America and the Ta-Tsing Empire of the 18th of June, 1858.

Whereas since the conclusion of the treaty between the United States of America and the Ta Tsing Empire (China) of the 18th of June, 1858, circumstances have arisen showing the necessity of additional articles thereto, the President of the United States and the august sovereign of the Ta-Tsing Empire, have named for their plenipotentiaries, to wit: the President of the United States of America, William H. Seward, Secretary of State, and his Majesty the Emperor of China, Anson Burlingame, accredited as his Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary, and Chih Kang and Sun Chia-Ku, of the second Chinese rank, associated high envoys and ministers of his said Majesty, and the said plenipotentiaries, after having exchanged their full powers, found to be in due and proper form, have agreed upon the following articles:

ARTICLE I. His Majesty the Emperor of China, being of the opinion that, in making concessions to the citizens or subjects of foreign powers of the privilege of residing on certain tracts of land, or resorting to certain waters of that empire for purposes of trade, he has by no means relinquished his right of eminent domain or dominion over the said land and waters, hereby agrees that no such concession or grant shall be construed to give to any power or party which may be at war with or hostile to the United States the right to attack the citizens of the United States or their property within the said lands or waters. And the United States, for themselves, hereby agree to abstain from offensively attacking the citizens or subjects of any power or party or their property with which they may be at war on any such tract of land or waters of the said empire. But nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the United States from resisting an attack by any hostile power or party upon their citizens or their property. It is further agreed that if any right or interest in any tract of land in China has been or shall hereafter be granted by the government of China to the United States or their citizens for purposes of trade or commerce, that grant shall in no event be construed to divest the Chinese authorities of their right of jurisdiction over persons and property within said tract of land, except so far as that right may have been expressly relinquished by treaty.

ARTICLE II. The United States of America and his Majesty the Emperor of China, believing that the safety and prosperity of commerce will thereby best be promoted, agree that any privilege or immunity in respect to trade or navigation within the Chinese dominions which may not have been stipulated for by treaty, shall be subject to the discretion of the Chinese government and may be regulated by it accordingly, but not in a manner or spirit incompatible with the treaty stipulations of the parties.

ARTICLE III. The Emperor of China shall have the right to appoint consuls at ports of the United States who shall enjoy the same privileges and immunities as those which are enjoyed by public law and treaty in the United States by the consuls of Great Britain and Russia, or either of them.

ARTICLE IV. The twenty-ninth article of the treaty of the 18th of June 1858, having stipulated for the exemption of Christian citizens of the United States and Chinese converts from persecution in China on account of their faith, it is further agreed that citizens of the United States in China, of every religious persuasion, and Chinese subjects in the United States, shall enjoy entire liberty of conscience, and shall be exempt from all disability or persecution on account of their religious faith or worship in either country. Cemeteries for sepulture of the dead of whatever nativity or nationality, shall be held in respect and free from disturbance or profanation.

ARTICLE V. The United States of America and the Emperor of China cordially recognize the inherent and inalienable right of man to change his home and allegiance, and also the mutual advantage of the free migration and emigration of their citizens and subjects respectively, from the one country to the other, for purposes of curiosity, of trade, or as permanent residents. The high contracting parties, therefore join in reprobating any other than an entirely voluntary emigration for these purposes. They consequently agree to pass laws making it a penal offence for a citizen of the United States or Chinese subjects to take Chinese subjects either to the United States or to any other foreign country, or for a Chinese subject or citizen of the United States to take citizens of the United States to China or to any other foreign country, without their free and voluntary consent respectively.

ARTICLE VI. Citizens of the United States visiting or residing in China shall enjoy the same privileges, immunities, or exemptions in respect to travel or residence as may there be enjoyed by the citizens or subjects of the most favored nation. And, reciprocally, Chinese subjects visiting or residing in the United States, shall enjoy the same privileges, immunities, and exemptions in respect to travel or residence, as may there be enjoyed by the citizens or subjects of the most favored nation. But nothing herein contained shall be held to confer naturalization upon citizens of the United States in China, nor upon the subjects of China in the United States.

ARTICLE VII. Citizens of the United States shall enjoy all the privileges of the public educational institutions under the control of the government of China, and, reciprocally, Chinese subjects shall enjoy all the privileges of the public educational institutions under the control of the government of the United States, which are enjoyed in the respective countries by the citizens or subjects of the most favored nation. The citizens of the United States may freely establish and maintain schools within the Empire of China at those places where foreigners are by treaty permitted to reside, and, reciprocally, Chinese subjects may enjoy the same privileges and immunities in the United States.

ARTICLE VIII. The United States, always disclaiming and discouraging all practices of unnecessary dictation and intervention by one nation in the affairs or domestic administration of another, do hereby freely disclaim and disavow any intention or right to intervene in the domestic administration of China in regard to the construction of rail-roads, telegraphs, or other material internal improvements. On the other hand, his Majesty, the Emperor of China, reserves to himself the right to decide the time and manner and circumstances of introducing such improvements within his dominions. With this mutual understanding it is agreed by the contracting parties that if at any time hereafter his imperial Majesty shall determine to construct or cause to be constructed works of the character mentioned within the empire, and shall make application to the United States or any other western power for facilities to carry out that policy, the United States will in that case designate and authorize suitable engineers to be employed by the Chinese government, and will recommend to other nations an equal compliance with such application, the Chinese government in that case protecting such engineers in their persons and property, and paying them a reasonable compensation for their service.

In faith whereof the respective plenipotentiaries have signed this treaty and thereto affixed the seals of their arms.

Done at Washington the twenty eighth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty eight.

And whereas the said additional articles have been duly ratified on both parts, and the respective ratifications of the same have been exchanged:

Now, therefore, be it known that I, Ulysses S. Grant, President of the United States of America, have caused the said additional articles to be made public, to the end that the same, and every clause and article thereof, may be observed and fulfilled with good faith by the United States and the citizens thereof.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

OF GOOD

Timber Land

For Sale at a Low Rate,

Situated on Moose River in the town of Greig, Lewis County, New York

Timber consisting of White Hemlock, Spruce, ... Hardwood. The subscribers own two tanneries located on the aforesaid tract which use the hemlock bark, thus enabling the timber and lumber to be purchased at a comparatively cheap rate. The timber is excellent in quality in all portions. The aforesaid tract of land is easy of access being only from six to fifteen miles from both the Black River R. R. and Black River Canal which lead direct to the Albany Market. The land is comparatively level, well watered and good for farming purposes. Moose River, which extends through the land, is a large stream and empties into Black River where the aforesaid Canal leads into Black River.

At this point or junction of the rivers, is a fall of sixty (60) feet, over which the waters of both rivers flow, thus forming an unlimited water power, (we might say right in the Canal and at the D... pot) to which Moose River will carry the immense amount of timber from the aforesaid lands.

Any parties desiring to manufacture lumber will do well to give this rare opportunity their attention. The land and timber can be purchased at a cheap rate or the timber alone permitted.
